

-----Original Message-----

From: dennis hull [redacted]

Sent: Monday, January 13, 2003 8:56 AM

To: comments@nwppc.org

Subject: mainstem amendments

Fish need water, they don't have alternatives. There are other sources of energy. I am strongly opposed to anything that could damage the salmon and steelhead recovery efforts that in my opinion haven't gone far enough in the right direction. Holding back water is in the opposite direction of what needs to be done. Let the rivers flow and give the fish the water they need.

Dennis Hull
Keizer Oregon